Today was a great day! I did some volunteer work with my mum. We went to a community centre to join an activity.

Then, I went to the MTR station to sell flags with my mum because we thought that there would be a lot of people there so we could sell a lot of flags.

At first, I was afraid because if someone refused to buy a flag, I wouldn't know what to do and I would be very embarrassed. However, Mum encouraged me so I felt more confident and I started to sell flags. Although sometimes people rejected me, I still sold a lot of flags.

In the end, we sold all of the flags and the leader praised us! My mum and I felt very happy. I look forward to volunteering with my mum again.
