

Class: 5C      Name : Fu Wai Hin Wilson

Topic : Mr Fox and his lover

Mr Fox and his lover were walking in the park. Then Mr Fox, who has a long tail, saw a tree. However, it wasn't like any other trees – it was a grape tree. When he saw the tree, he asked his lover, 'Would you like a bunch of juicy sour grapes?', which she replied, 'Yes, of course! However, how would you – or we get the grapes? They're so high up in the tree!' Mr Fox walked up to the tree and climbed it, but then 'Bang!' Mr Fox fell off the tree injuring his leg and arm.

His lover ran up to him and helped him to sit up. 'Are you okay?' his lover asked, he replied, 'No...my left arm and right leg hurts.' Then, they walked back home slowly and carefully. When they finally got back home, Mr Fox was in bed resting. His lover made dinner for him – which was rice. His lover brought the bowl of rice and a cup of water on a tray. She told him to wake up and eat dinner. After he ate, he said, ‘I will get a bunch of grapes soon...’

The next day, he grabbed a ladder and went to the park. He placed the ladder on the tree and climbed up the ladder. When he had the grapes, he was so happy that he rushed back home and forgot the ladder! When his lover saw the grapes, she took them and washed them. They ate them and both of them were delighted.