Dear Tom,

13th October, 2021

I heard that you are smart, kind and outgoing.
I think you would be a suitable social worker.

Social workers need to be patient and friendly.
They need to give others advice on some things and chat with people.

As you are smart and kind, you can give others some appropriate advice and you can be kind to people.

You now need to study hard to make yourself smarter and participate in some elocution classes to improve your eloquence. Then you can communicate fluently with others.

Yours sincerely,

Mandy
