Topic : My Self-written Account

My name is Koey. I was born in 2009 in Hong Kong. I started drawing pictures when I was 7. I love drawing so much, I even ran out of paper one day.

When I was in Primary 3, I joined an art class, it was really fun! One day, when I was walking to school, I saw a man drawing a picture in the street. I walked close and saw him drawing the sky. It was so beautiful. After that, I finally decided to become an artist when I grow up. If I become an artist, I will draw pictures for my customers. I need to be outgoing and creative so that I can get more ideas for my pictures. Hopefully my dream will come true one day.
