

Re-write a Famous Story

Once upon a time, there was a rabbit called Speedy and a tortoise named Jacob. Although Speedy was the fastest rabbit in the village, she had a bad personality. She was far too proud!

One day, Speedy had another competition in the village. She won first place again. She was arrogant so she laughed at the animals who lost.

After that, she saw Jacob walking slowly on the road and teased him, 'Ha ha Jacob! You are so slow. I will call you Slowly. Ha ha!' Jacob was furious after he heard this, so he replied, 'Do you dare to have a race with me?' 'Who would be scared race you? Of course I'm going to be there,' she answered.

They chose a perfect place to race and they found some animals to help cheer them on. The starting point of the race was at the bottom of the mountain and the finishing point was at the top of the mountain. Before the race began, Speedy said, 'Slowly, I will win against you for sure. See you up there!' Jacob thought, 'What a proud rabbit!'

'3-2-1 go!' The competition started. Speedy ran fast and she disappeared in under 10 seconds. Jacob felt shocked and he said, 'Oh no! I can't see her already.'

In the middle of the race, Speedy looked back and she couldn't see Jacob. She laughed, 'Ha ha ha, I knew this would happen.' Then she fell asleep because she felt a little tired after her back to back races. She slept on the grass and lay on some big rocks. After a few minutes, she had already fallen fast asleep and was snoring loudly. Jacob went past her, 'That's what you get after you laughed at me. Have a nice dream. Hehe!' he said. Eventually, a mosquito buzzed around Speedy and woke her up. At that moment, Jacob was on the top of the mountain and he had already won. Speedy quickly ran as fast as she possibly could, but unluckily she had still lost.

Finally, Jacob found out that she was unhappy so he shared his trophy with her. This story teaches us that we shouldn't be too proud and we should be humble. What an unforgettable day!

Hiking on Lantau

On a lovely sunny day, Mr. and Mrs. Chan decided to go on a hike. They laid out a picnic mat and enjoyed their homemade food.

After they filled up their tummies, they started walking again. Oh no! They were lost. Mr. and Mrs. Chan started to panic. They walked and walked for hours, trying to find a way home, but they couldn't get out. It felt like a maze; every step felt like torture.

It was already nine o'clock in the evening when they finally saw a worker standing there lazily, as if he were bored out of his mind. Mr. Chan asked for a map, and the worker tossed it to him.

Could this day get any worse? Oh wait, it could. The last bus was leaving in twenty minutes. They rushed down the mountain!

They finally got down. Wait! Where was the bus? They had missed it. When they were almost out of hope, a man named Lam saw everything and offered them a ride. Mr. and Mrs. Chan were very thankful. After the ride home, they exchanged phone numbers so they could repay him someday.

If you help one another, kindness will always be returned in a way a kind soul can never forget.

A Silly Couple

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Chan went hiking on Lantau Island. It was a sunny day, so they were very excited. They walked along a long trail that led to the Big Buddha.

They followed their old map and they finally came to a big forest. The sky was really dark. It was already nighttime. They were scared and lost. Although they had a phone with them, there wasn't any signal. Therefore, they couldn't find their way out.

The couple tried to find the way out of the forest by themselves, but they failed. They were tired and hungry. They ran out of food and drink. Luckily, a kind man saw them and said, 'I think you are lost, let me tell you how to get out of here.' He took his new map and pointed out the way to the bus stop for Tung Chung MTR Station. But the final bus was going to leave in a minute so they rushed to the bus stop as fast as they could. However, things didn't go as smoothly as they would have liked. They couldn't catch it in time and the bus left in front of them.

In the end, they had to spend the night in the wild and went home the next day. They regretted that they brought an old map and learned that they should always use the most updated things.

Replying to an Email

Dear David,

How are you? I was so glad to read your email. How could I forget about our wonderful trip to Tai O? It was my first time visiting a fishing village! This time let me organise a good plan for your visit. I will pick you up at the airport on Lantau Island. Then, we will go to the hotel in Tung Chung. After that, we will go to have dinner.

The Hong Kong Wetland Park and Ngong Ping Village are good places for nature lovers. On the second day, you can enjoy the beautiful views at both places. I chose Ngong Ping because we can see the Big Buddha and visit Ngong Ping Village there. We will go there by cable car. Then we will have a vegetarian meal at Po Lin Monastery. By the way, I found a leaflet about the village. You can take a look and find out more about the famous attractions there.

On the third day, we will go to Ocean Park because you said the rides were not exciting enough at Hong Kong Disneyland. So, we will go to Ocean Park this time as it has world-class thrilling rides. We can meet the sea animals there too.

On the last day, we will go to Citygate Outlets to buy some souvenirs. I will see you off at the airport.

I hope you like my plan. See you soon!
