

A Surprise Party

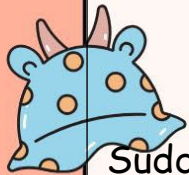

Once upon a time, Princess Mary and Billy Dragon planned a surprise party for Prince Harry as Prince Harry's birthday was coming.

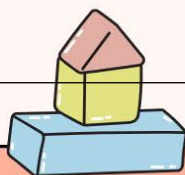

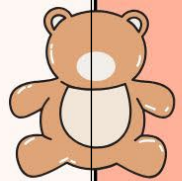

First, they went to the castle. They went to the kitchen. They saw that the refrigerator was empty. They were shocked. Next, they went to the supermarket to buy some food. They were surprised that the shelves were all empty too. They did not know what was going on.

After that, they went back to the castle.

Suddenly, someone shouted, 'Surprise!' They saw it was Prince Harry. Princess Mary was so surprised that all the food had already been prepared. It was delicious. In the end, they all enjoyed the party that Prince Harry had secretly planned.
